Blended Learning Course: Researching Country of Origin Information (COI)

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to announce that our next international Blended Learning course "Researching Country of Origin Information (COI)" will take place in February/March 2020 with the face-to-face meeting in Vienna, Austria. The course is organised by the Austrian Red Cross/ACCORD and will be based on the COI Module of the EASO Training Curriculum.

The Blended Learning Programme will provide you with information on

- quality standards when using and researching COI,
- how to formulate relevant questions,
- how to conduct research that results in relevant, reliable and balanced, accurate and up-to-date COI, and
- on how to present this information in a transparent and traceable way.

New skills will be directly applied in a case study at the face-to-face meeting in Vienna. The course also offers the unique opportunity to discuss the role and standards of country of origin information with colleagues from different countries.

The course details are as follows:

Date of E-Training Phase: 17 February 2020 – 13 March 2020

Date of Face-to-Face Meeting: 18 March 2020

Place of Face-to-Face Meeting: Vienna, Austria

The course language will be English.

For registration, please fill in the attached course application form and send it to training.accord@redcross.at by 3 February 2020.
